

Technical Data Sheet

LIGHT SLACK WAX

Slack Wax is a series of products obtained in solvent de-waxing. It Contains normal and iso-paraffins and has a light color. All types of this product are used as blending components or waterproofing agents in the manufacture of various industrial products such as candles, polishes, matches, inks, carbon paper and can be applied externally as good dust suppressants or controlled-release agents for various chemicals and fertilizers.

Application:

- Candle Production
- Wax emulsions
- Textile industries
- Insulation and glass wool
- Paraffin wax production

TEST	Test Method	Value
Kinematic Viscosity at 100°C (cst)	ASTM D445	6-7.5
Oil Content(% wt)	ASTM D721	7-11
Melting Point (°C)	ASTM D87	56-65
Color	ASTM D1500	1.5